Abstract

This document is the template for research papers written for 1ˢᵗ EDUPC,2025 Conferences. It is a Microsoft Word document. This document is not made to teach you how to write a scientific paper, but it is about the format and shape of the pages and their contents including text, figures and tables. Number of pages must not exceed (25) pages and not less than (5) pages. Authors are required to follow the instructions provided in this document. In addition to accepting the scientific content, publishing authors work is subject to following this format. Section titles and contents depend on your research.

Please make sure that the Abstract and keywords must NOT exceed the first page of your paper.

Keywords: Separate, keywords, with, a comma.

1. Introduction

Authors are required to follow the setup of the page formats for the publication of the papers. In the following sections you will find the important details regarding this template.

2. Page Margins

The paper size is A4. Please do not change the margins or any dimension of this template. The page top margin is 1.8cm, bottom margin is 1.8cm, left margin is 2.2cm, and right margin is 2.2cm. And the direction of text from right to left for papers in English.

3. Text Styles

There is a Style for every part of the paper, from the Title to the References. Therefore, when you write your paper's title select the text Style Title, the author names in Style Author, authors affiliation (institute and email) in Style Affiliation. Section names such as Abstract, Introduction, Methodology, Conclusions, References (and so on), should be written in Style Heading 1. The normal Text is to be written in Style Normal.Text styles are to be selected from the Styles menu located on the Home tab of Microsoft Word, see Figure 1 below.

Each style sets the font size, alignment, and spacing of the text. All text uses font name Times New Roman. Refer to Table 1 below for details of each style.

Table1: Style details.

Style	Font Size	Is Bold	Is Italic	Line Spacing	Before Spacing	After Spacing	Alignment

Reference	12	No	No	Single	0	0	Justified
	Before Test: 0.6			After Text: 0.1		Special: Hanging 0.6

4. Figures

The style of Figure includes the images, maps, and any other diagrams. Figure name is to be written underneath the figure as shown in Figure 1 above. Make sure you mansion your figure in context of your paper. It is advised that you refer to the figure (at least first time) before the figure itself. Figures used in your paper

Text font size in figures (images, maps, or diagrams) is 10, or 8 when necessarily needed. Figure names are to be written in style Figure.

4.1. Images

Images used in your paper must not exceed text area (text margins). The colours and text on the image have to be clear and readable. Do not use huge size images.

4.2. Maps

Any maps used in your paper are to be inside the text area of the page, i. e. between the set page margins. Make sure the lines, colours, points, and text are clear and readable.

5. Tables

Tables are centered and no text at their left or right. The name of the table is at the top of it. Text font size is 10, or 8 when significant. The heading of the table (names of the columns) is bold and size 10. It is advised that you refer to the table (at least first time) before the table itself. Table names are to be written in style Table.

6. Using References

References should be formatted in the text of the research and in the reference list according to the American Psychological Association (APA 7th Edition) style.

The content of the research must include the following elements according to the standards of educational and social research:

1. Introduction

2. Research Problem

3. Importance of the Research
